

Park Rangers Association of California

Park Ranger Training and Standards

Purpose:

To provide guidelines for the standards and training of the professional park ranger established by the Park Rangers Association of California. The standards established by the Board of Directors in March 2001, are minimum skills needed for the professional park ranger. An agency may require more or less than the standards given. The skills describe basic training in interpretation; maintenance & operations; resource management; fire management; emergency medical services; and law enforcement. The public safety standards and training follow the guidelines of state law, directed by the State Fire Marshall; Peace Officers Standards & Training; and the Occupational Safety and Health Association. The Park Rangers Association's recommended training is to provide adequately trained rangers and reduce liability by following state approved training. There are two certificates available the Generalist Ranger Certificate-Public Safety for Park Ranger-Peace Officers and Generalist Ranger Certificate, which is designed for non-sworn Park Rangers.

Oversight:

The Standards and Training Committee serves as oversight for the following committees:

1. Interpretation
2. Resource Management
3. Maintenance & Operations (Park Stewardship)
4. Fire Management and Search and Rescue
5. Emergency Medical Services
6. Law Enforcement

It will be the Standards and Training Committee's responsibility to continuously evaluate each discipline for any needed changes; monitor the certification process; seek and approve specific training programs for standards and training; and maintain training records of individuals.

Committees:

It shall be the responsibility for the committees to:

1. Establish statewide standards for the professional park ranger.
2. Establish professional training, seminars and workshops for its discipline.
3. Establish criteria needed to meet skills for certification.

4. Establish prerequisites needed prior to taking a specific course.
5. Implement a challenge procedure for individuals who may have taken similar/previous training.
6. Develop instructors to provide training for each discipline.
7. Develop or include any time limits needed for update or retraining on specific coursework.

Certification:

The Park Rangers Association shall issue certificates of training or skills to individuals completing approved training. Organizations that provide similar training that meet the criteria for the standards may receive certification upon approval from the Standards and Training Committee.

Applicants:

Applications may be made by any uniformed park professional. Applicants are not required to be members of the Park Rangers Association of California.

The applicant should retain one copy of the complete application for their records.

THE REVIEW PROCESS

Once an application is received the packet will be assigned to a member of the Standards and Training Committee.

The Reviewer shall evaluate the application and validate that the information in the application is correct, true and meets the standards defined in the application.

The Reviewer may contact the applicant for additional information to clarify any material submitted. Incomplete applications will be returned to the applicant to be amended and resubmitted.

Upon completion of the first review the applicants packet will be forwarded to a second member of the Standards and Training Committee for validation.

Once both reviewers agree that the application is complete and meets the requirements established by the Park Rangers Association of California a certificate for each completed domain will be awarded to the applicant.

Park Rangers Association of California Generalist Ranger Certification

Each applicant that successfully meets the requirements of all the required domains shall be awarded the Generalist Ranger Certificate or Generalist Ranger-Public Safety Certification. The Generalist Certificates are typically presented by the Board of Directors of the Park Rangers Association of California during the Awards Banquet at the California Parks Training Conference held each spring. If the recipient of the award will not be able to attend the California Parks Conference they may request the certificate and plaque be sent by mail.

The successful completion of the Generalist Certificate is an achievement of note and the Committee and the Board strongly encourage successful applicants to attend the Awards Banquet for the formal presentation.
